

In Case No. 2017 CA 002284, MAT Media, LLC and Charles “Pat” Roberts sued the House Litigants and challenged both PIEC’s and the House’s subpoenas issued to them. In Case No. 2017 CA 002368, the Speaker, on behalf of PIEC, sued MAT Media and Mr. Roberts pursuant to section 11.143(4)(b), Florida Statutes, to enforce the same PIEC subpoenas.

The nature of the February 14, 2018, order is a final order denying the House Litigants’ motion to dismiss the amended complaint filed by MAT Media and Mr. Roberts, granting declaratory relief, and quashing parts of both the PIEC’s and the House’s subpoenas in Case No. 2017 CA 002284. The February 14, 2018, order also is a final order denying in part the Speaker’s petition to enforce PIEC’s subpoenas and keeping in place a prior order enforcing against MAT Media and Mr. Roberts other portions of those same subpoenas in Case No. 2017 CA 002368. The February 14, 2018, final order otherwise purports to dispose of both complaints pending before the Court.

Respectfully submitted,
