

FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF FLORIDA

---

No. 1D20-1165

---

AMERICAN ZURICH INSURANCE
COMPANY, et al.,

Petitioners,

v.

STEEL, et al.,
JAIME SANTA CLARA, et al.,

Respondents.

---

Petition for Writ of Certiorari—Original Jurisdiction.

November 6, 2020

PER CURIAM.

DISMISSED. See Landmark at Crescent Ridge LP v. Everest Fin., Inc., 219 So. 3d 218, 219 (Fla. 1st DCA 2017) (explaining that where the party seeking review does not demonstrate that it will suffer a material injury that cannot be corrected on appeal, the petition for writ of certiorari must be dismissed); see also Citizens Prop. Ins. Corp. v. San Perdido Ass'n, Inc., 104 So. 3d 344, 351 (Fla. 2012) (explaining that before conducting certiorari review of a non-final order, the appellate court must focus on the threshold jurisdictional question of whether there is irreparable harm).

RAY, C.J., and BILBREY and NORDBY, JJ., concur.

---

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.

---

Jon D. Derrevere, Michael B. Stevens, and Shirley McEachern of Derrevere Stevens Black & Cozad, West Palm Beach, for Petitioners.

Britney M. Williams of Lloyd, Gray, Whitehead & Monroe, P.C., Birmingham, AL, for Respondent Thornton Tomasetti, Inc.; Joseph A. Zarzaur, Jr. and Thomas A. Gore of Zarzaur Law, P.A., Pensacola, for Respondents Ivan Torres-Cruz and Anthony Waters; Shea T. Moxon and Celene H. Humphries of Brannock Humphries & Berman, Tampa, for Respondent Jaime Santaclara.